

YOUTHACTION COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP COURSE

Are you a high school student who wants to learn how to be an effective advocate for yourself, your school, and your community?

Then Join CCC's YouthAction Community Leadership Course!

Every fall and spring, 25 high school students from throughout all five boroughs of New York City participate in CCC's YouthAction Community Leadership Course (YCLC)—an after-school program for high school students interested in learning the tools of effective advocacy and how to make positive changes in their communities.

The YCLC is a FREE 10-week course for high school students, which meets on Monday afternoons from 4:00 to 7:00 PM at CCC's office located at 14 Wall St. in Manhattan.

"The YouthAction Community Leadership Course at Citizens' Committee for Children was an experience that I will never forget. It changed the way I see myself and the community around me. I no longer view myself as someone insignificant to change or as someone who has no say in how my community is run. This course gave me my voice." –
